TO THE MOST NOBLE AND WORTHY LORD

WILLIAM Earle of Pembrooke, L. Herbert of Cardyf, L. Par and Rosse of Kendall, Lord Marmion, and S. Quintin, Lord Warden of the Stannaries, and Knight of the most Noble Order of the Garter.

IR, Art and the loue of Art continually are leagude together, It shall be no dishoner therefore for your height to imbrace the humblest endeuors of those that seeke not you but your vertues: For mine owne side I haue beene traind vp without the verge of Complement, nor can I phrase the zeale I beare you in swelling discourses. My Life hath beene a Souldier, and my idlenes addicted to Musicke, of both which I here doe offer the seruice to your best worthy selfe. The Acceptance I feare not, since I know great heartes are as farre from contempt, as from basenes. I rest the seruant of your vertues.

TOBIAS HYME.

To the vnderſtanding Reader.

I Doe not ſtudie Eloquence, or profeſſe Muſicke, although I doe loue Sence, and affect Harmony: My Profeſſion being, as my Education hath beene, Armes, the onely effeminate part of me, hath beene Muſicke; which in mee hath beene alwayes Generous, becauſe neuer Mercenarie. To prayſe Muſicke, were to ſay, the Sunne is bright. To extoll my ſelfe, would ſtame my labors vaine glorious. Onely this, my ſtudies are far from ſeruile imitations, I robbe no others inuentions, I take no Italian Note to an English dittie, or filch fragments of Songs to ſtuffe out my volumes. Theſe are mine own Phanſies expreſſed by my proper Genius, which if thou doſt diſlike, let me ſee thine, Carpere vel noli noſtra, vel ede tua, Now to vſe a modeſt ſhortnes, and a briefe expreſſion of my ſelfe to all noble ſpirites, thus, My Title expreſſeth my Bookes Contents, which (if my Hopes faile me not) ſhall not deceiue their expectation, in whoſe approuement the crowne of my labors reſteth. And from henceforth, the ſtatefull inſtrument Gambo Violl, ſhall with eaſe yeelde full various and as deuiceſull Muſicke as the Lute. For here I proteſt the Trinitie of Muſicke, parts, Paſsion and Diuiſion, to be as gracefully vnited in the Gambo Violl, as in the moſt receiued Inſtrument that is, which here with a Souldiers Reſolution, I giue vp to the acceptance of al noble diſpoſitions.

The friend of his friend,

TOBIAS HVME.

If you will heare the Viol de Gambo in his true Maieſtie, to play parts, and ſinging thereto, then ſtring him with nine ſtringes, your three Baſſes double as the Lute, which is to be plaide on with as much eaſe as your Violl of ſixe ſtringes.
